

NEWS RELEASE

29 March 2019

Spotswood - Civilex and its Board of Directors are pleased to formally announce the appointment of Nabeel Sadaka as Chief Executive Officer.

“We are thrilled to have someone of Nabeel’s calibre and experience step into this newly created leadership role. Nabeel will help drive the Civilex group of entities into a new era. He is a proven leader with an impressive foundation of engineering skills, business acumen, shared values and the natural ability to bring people together,” says Joe Bartolo Managing Director.

2019 has seen Civilex continue its growth and expansion trajectory. Appointing Nabeel to the role of CEO will see our strategic vision further materialize and take advantage of key market opportunities, partnerships and new business into the future.

In true Civilex spirit, we warmly welcome Nabeel, wife Lis and son Ash to our tight-knit construction family and look forward to working together.

Joe Bartolo
Managing Director

